“Advancing Community Development” is a unique year-long program which combines academic course work with a field placement overseen by professionals from Johnson & Johnson and non-profit leaders from local community organizations.

FALL SEMESTER

- Take a 3-credit class offered Wednesdays 6:10-7:30pm on College Avenue co-taught by Rutgers faculty and Johnson & Johnson professionals. Topics include community development, non-profit management, and community-based research.
- Work with local community partner to develop a capacity-building project for their organization.
- Learn about issues facing the New Brunswick community and how you can make a difference.

SPRING SEMESTER

- Implement a capacity-building project for a local community organization, 6-8 hours per week.
- Take a 2-credit recitation class where you will reflect on your projects and learn from each other.
- Work with local community partner to develop a capacity-building project for their organization.
- Have an opportunity to present your project at a year-end celebration.

APPLY NOW

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO APPLY, CONTACT:

collaborativerecruitment@gmail.com

The Collaborative Center for Community-Based Research and Service
Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey
640 Bartholomew Road, Piscataway, NJ 08854
Tel: (848) 932-8660 Fax: (732) 445-4231
Email: civic@rci.rutgers.edu
engage.rutgers.edu