The Collaborative Mentoring Program helps support promising, economically disadvantaged local students in New Brunswick and Piscataway on their journey towards college acceptance while also examining questions of educational equity and opportunity through classroom learning. Undergraduate mentors are trained to support youth who are affiliated with various college access programs and mentor these students for 2-3 hours per week to develop a relationship of trust and self-efficacy.

Benefits of serving as a mentor:

- Make a potentially life-changing impact on young people in our community
- Gain experience that will be of value if you plan to work in the fields of psychology, education, social work, public policy, law, or medicine
- Participation will count toward the fulfillment of the new Certificate in Youth Mentoring, a prestigious designation to receive upon graduation for your community-based service and learning efforts

Applicant Requirements:

- At least one semester of college experience
- Minimum 2.5 GPA
- Availability for a once-weekly 3-credit class (Mondays 11:30am-12:50pm) or a 1-credit recitation
- Completion of an application and interview process

Note: We do not provide transportation; however, carpooling opportunities are available. Some sites are within walking distance of Rutgers.
